

A Guide to Internet Web Sites of CI Interest

- CI-RELATED RESEARCH -

ABC News: www.abcnews.com

ABC Radio Networks: www.abcradio.com

Alexis de Tocqueville Institute (think tank): www.schoolreport.com

American Enterprise Institute (think tank): www.aei.org

American Foreign Policy Council (think tank): www.afpc.org

Amnesty International USA: www.amnesty-usa.org

Highly respected organization that tracks human rights issues around the world.

Asia Development Bank (ADB): www.adb.org

Association of Southeast Asian nations (ASEAN): www.asean.or.id

Atlantic Monthly: www.atlanticmonthly.com

Balkan Institute (think tank): www.balkaninstitute.org

BfV: www.verfassungsschutz.de/spion.htm

Official site of the German Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution.

The Boston Globe: www.globe.com/globe

British American Security Information Council (BASIC): www.basicint.org

An independent research organization that analyzes international security policy in Europe and North America.

Brookings (think tank): www.brookings.org

C-SPAN: www.c-span.org

Canadian Institute of Strategic Studies (CISS): www.ciss.ca

CISS is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to research, analysis and discussion of national and international strategic issues in a Canadian context.

Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS): www.csis-sers.gc.ca

An interesting, if innocuous, web site of a sister service from our neighbor to the north.

Carroll Publishing Defense Industry: www.carrollpub.com/Industry/industryopener.asp

CATO (think tank): www.cato.org

CBS News: www.cbsnews.com

CBS Radio Network/Westwood One: www.cbsradio.com

Center for Defense Information (think tank): www.cdi.org

CDI is a private research organization on matters concerning the military and its impact on economics, politics and society in general.

Center for Security Policy (CSP): www.security-policy.org

CSP is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to debate on all aspects of national security policy.

Center for Security Studies and Conflict Research, Zurich: www.fsk.ethz.ch

An independent academic institution researching the fields of security policy and conflict analysis.

Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS - think tank): www.csis.org

A public policy research institution on matters related to policy analysis and impact, especially US foreign policy and national security issues.

Center for Strategic and Budgetary Assessments (CSBA): www.csbahome.com

Independent research institution studying current and projected developments in defense strategies and budgetary impacts.

Centre for Defence and International Security Studies (CDISS), Lancaster University, UK: www.cdiss.org

CDISS addresses UK national and international defense and security policy issues.

Centre for Counterintelligence and Security Studies (CI Centre): www.cicentre.com

CI Centre provides advanced and innovative CI and security training, research and analysis for people in the intelligence, national security and defense communities in the US Government as well as for the corporate sector.

The Chicago Tribune: www.chicago.tribune.com

Claremont Institute (think tank): www.claremont.org

Cloak and Dagger Books: www.cloakanddagger.com/dagger/

Claims to be the world's largest dealer in books on: espionage, spies, codes & ciphers, guerrilla warfare, terrorism, military intelligence, assassinations and counterintelligence. Carries new, old, rare and out-of-date titles...over 12,000 titles in all.

CNBC (news): www.cnbc.com

CNN News: www.cnn.com

Aside from regular news stories, domestic and international, CNN also has a series of special feature articles on crisis points (or international hot spots) entitled 'Faces of Conflict,' available on their web site.

Codex Data Systems: www.thecodex.com

Private business dealing in technical surveillance training, equipment, hardware and software, books, etc.

Columbia University's Lehman Library: International Security Policy & Military Affairs - Information Sources: www.columbia.edu/cu/libraries/indiv/lehman/guides/isc.html

An excellent site for access to research links in the US and international, governmental and private, also has an extensive bibliography on security policy and research.

Competitive Enterprise Institute (think tank): www.cei.org

Competitive Intelligence Analysis: www.stratfor.com

A private, global intelligence services company, which provides its customers with customized in-depth analysis and forecasting focusing on global, geopolitical and financial issues.

Conservative information Network: www.conservativepress.org

Correlates of War Project (University of Michigan): www.umich.edu/~cowproj/index.html

The COW Project is on on-going study on the conditions associated with the outbreak of war, and militarized disputes. Web site is primarily a guide to sources.

Council on Foreign Relations (think tank): www.foreignrelations.org

Cybercrimes: www.cybercrimes.net

Acts as a directory to a plethora of sites related to crime, espionage, and security issues on the internet.

Defence Systems Daily: www.defence-data.com

Defense Industry Initiative: www.dii.org

Defense News: www.defensenews.com

DFax: <http://csf.colorado.edu/dfax/dfaxblrb.htm>

DFax is a project of the Farndon House Information Trust, a registered charity that promotes the use and understanding of on-line information technology in researching international security issues.

DisInformation: www.searches.co.uk/disinfor.htm

A British web site with several 'hot links' to security and intelligence sites. Appears to have its own agenda, but could be of use.

DWE Institute: www.dwe-enterprises.com

A private contractor firm which provides training in Intelligence Resource Management.

The Economist: www.economist.com

Embassies & Consulates in the US: www.embpage.org

Embassies & Consulates Worldwide: www.embassyweb.com

Empower America (think tank): www.empower.org

Ethics and Public Policy Center (think tank): www.eppc.org

European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD): www.ebrd.com

European Union (EU): www.europa.eu.int

Official web site of the EU, in several languages, an organization that is becoming more important in world affairs, and to NATO and the UN.

Federal Information Exchange: www.rams-fie.com

On-line database services, software development and technical support to federal agencies.

Federal News Service: www.fnsg.com

Federal Times: www.federaltimes.com

Federation of American Scientists (FAS): www.fas.org

The FAS, originally founded by Project MANHATTAN scientists, has a extensive web site with many 'hot links' to other related sites pertaining to intelligence, counterintelligence, and security.

Financial Times: www.ft.com

Fox News: www.fox.com

Freedom House (think tank): www.freedomhouse.org

Frontiers of Freedom (think tank): www.ff.org

Granite Island Group: www.tscm.com

Private business dealing in training in, and consulting on, TSCM, SIGINT, electronic surveillance techniques, telecommunications, COMSEC, and counterintelligence. Extensive FAQ section on TSCM.

G8 Online: <http://g8.market2000.ca>

The Hacker Quarterly: www.2600.com

Web-site that addresses hacking, complete with instructions and archived listings of hacked sites. Also, talks to laws of privacy, etc. A different point-of-view!

The Hackers Home Page: www.hackershomepage.com

Web-site that sells instructions and the latest technology for hacking, etc. The site is for ... "Hackers... Phreaks... Crackers... Spies."

Henry L. Stimson Center: www.stimson.org

A nonprofit, nonpartisan institution dedicated to public policy research, especially on national and international security issues.

Heritage Foundation (think tank): www.heritage.org

Heritage Foundation's National Security Section: www.nationalsecurity.org

High Frontier (think tank): www.erols.com/hifront

Hoover Institution (think tank): www.hoover.stanford.edu

Hudson Institute (think tank): www.hudson.org

Human Rights Watch: www.hrw.org

Non-profit organization that tracks human rights issues world-wide.

Institute for Defense Analyses: www.ida.org

IDA is a non-profit organization that promotes US national security and public awareness.

Institute for Foreign Policy Analysis (think tank): www.ifpa.org

Institute of the North (think tank): www.institutenorth.org

IntelWeb: the 'www' Site of Intelligence Watch Report and Terrorism Watch Report:
<http://intelweb.janes.com>

Both the Intelligence Watch Report and the Terrorism Watch Report have good reputations. Unfortunately, theirs is membership web site requiring payment to receive the reports. Sample links are provided for your evaluation.

Inter-American Development Bank (IADB): www.iadb.org

International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA): www.iaea.org

International Energy Agency (IEA): www.iea.org

The International Herald Tribune: www.iht.com

International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), London: www.isn.ethz.ch/iiss/iisshome.htm

An independent center for research, information and debate on the problems of conflict, and security policy issues.

International Monetary Bank (IMF): www.imf.org

International Relations and Security Network (think tank): www.isn.ethz.ch

Insight on the News: www.insightmag.com

Jane's: www.janes.com

The Jerusalem Post: www.jpost.com

The Los Angeles Times: www.latimes.com

Legal Information Institute (LII): www.law.cornell.edu/rules/fre/overview.html

Cornell University's LII has an excellent web site on 'federal rules of evidence.'

The Los Angeles Times: www.latimes.com

Loyola Homepage on Strategic Intelligence: www.loyola.edu/dept/politics/intel.html

Loyola University's web site on their Strategic Intelligence Studies Program. Actually covers strategic, military, and economic & competitive intelligence. Excellent 'hot links' to primary documents, i.e. speeches, laws, reports, etc. Academic, but very useful.

Major, Capps & Associates, Inc. : www.cicentre.com

An excellent resource, and widely used contractor for counterintelligence training and education.

The Miami Herald: www.herald.com

Middle East Media and Research Institute (think tank): www.memri.org

MI-5: www.MI5.gov.uk

The official site of the British Intelligence and Security organization MI-5.

MSNBC News: www.msnbc.com

National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA): www.ndia.org

National Empowerment Television (NET) (news): www.net.fceref.org

National Public Radio: www.npr.org

National Review: www.nationalreview.com

National Security Web Site: www.nationalsecurity.org

A web site devoted to the dissemination of information and policy analyses regarding US national security issues.

National Technical Transfer Center (NTTC): www.nttc.edu

NBC News: www.nbc.com

New Atlantic Initiative (think tank): www.aei.org/nai/nai.htm

New York Daily News: <http://www.mostnewyork.com/>

The New York Times: www.nytimes.com

Nonproliferation Policy Education Center (think tank): www.wizard.net/~npec

North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO): www.nato.int

Web site serves as a directory to a wealth of information related to NATO, peacekeeping missions, and its role in the post-Cold War era, etc.

Online Intelligence Project: www.icg.org/intelweb/index.html

Their focus is information/intelligence for businesses in the global economy. Special attention is given to international political economy and security. Regional desks for threat information (West Europe, East Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia Pacific, and the Americas).

Open Source Solutions (OSS): www.oss.net

Closely linked to FAS above, their premise is that most useful information is unclassified and that most classified should be declassified.

Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD): www.oecd.org

Organization of American States (OAS): www.oas.org

Official web site of the OAS with information pertaining to western hemisphere issues and OAS member states.

Our Jerusalem (think tank): www.ourjerusalem.com

PBS: www.pbs.org

Policy News and Information Service: www.policy.com

Profiles Threat Countermeasures Group: www.profiles-threat.com/intelligence.html

Has 'hot links' to other intelligence related web sites, with attention to TSCM.

Progressive Policy Institute (think tank): www.dlcppi.org

Project on Defense Alternatives: www.comw.org/pda/

The PDA studies current military policies and its adaptation to the post-Cold War era.

Radio America: www.radioamerica.org

Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty: www.rferl.org

RAND (think tank): www.rand.org

An internationally famous 'think tank' that helps to improve public policy through research and analysis. The site also serves as a 'mini' directory to RAND's many separate locations.

The San Diego Union-Tribune: www.uniontribune.com

Silver Lance Research: www.silverlance.com/audiover/intel.htm

Essentially just a directory (as opposed to a web site) with over 30 'hot links' to intelligence related web sites.

The Spy Shop: www.w2.com/docs2/z/spyshop.html

An interesting web site for those who have a fascination with espionage paraphernalia.

StratNet: www.stratnet.ucalgary.ca/

A self-described 'publicly available research tool on the subjects of Strategic Studies, Security, International Relations and Politics.

Study Web: www.studyweb.com

Ideal tool for the researcher, it directly accesses 141,000 research URLs, which are highly systematized by categories and subjects.

Terrorism Research Center: www.terrorism.com/terrorism/links.html

Another web site that requires membership to utilize its resources. It does have a sample link or two, for the visitor to evaluate the quality of the site.

The Times (London): www.the-times.co.uk

The United Nations (UN): www.un.org

Web site acts as a directory to a wealth of information relating to the UN, international relations, peacekeeping missions, etc.

US-Asia Strategy Council (think tank): www.asiastrategy.com

Washington Institute for Near East Policy (think tank): www.washingtoninstitute.org

The Washington Post: www.washingtonpost.com

The Washington Times: www.washtimes.com

The Washingtonian (magazine): www.washingtonian.com

World Bank: www.worldbank.org

World Trade Organization (WTO): www.wto.org

(This page last updated 24 November 2000)